

This is the peer reviewed version of the following article:

- Byrne RA, Valgimigli M, Bhatt DL, Coughlan JJ, Gibson CM, Rossello X, Gorog DA, Ibáñez B, James S, Landi A, Steg PG, Stone GW, Andreotti F. Great debate: default duration of dual antiplatelet treatment after percutaneous coronary intervention in acute coronary syndrome should be 12 months. Eur Heart J. 2025 Jun 2;46(21):1965-1978. doi: 10.1093/eurheartj/ehaf070. PMID: 40056109.

which has been published in final form at

<https://doi.org/10.1093/eurheartj/ehaf070>